"Remand" is a term used to refer to pre-trial detention of an accused. Under the Criminal Procedure Code, a court may order that an accused be remanded if the court is of the view that the detention of the accused is necessary for the purpose of investigations by a law enforcement agency. An accused person may be remanded for investigations for up to 8 days at a time.

Dalam Criminal Procedure Code, mahkamah boleh menyuruh tertuduh dipenjara sewaktu siasatan masih dijalankan. Dia boleh dipenjara sedemikian selama 8 hari.

52. Remission = Disingkatkan pemenjaraan.

Remission is the reduction in the term of a sentence of imprisonment, conditional upon the good conduct and behaviour of a convicted accused person who is sentenced to imprisonment. Currently prison-inmates who qualify for remission are granted one-third remission of their sentences of imprisonment.

Ini dilakukan jika penjenayah itu menunjukkan kelakuan baik. Sekarang, penjenayah yang menunjukkan kelakuan baik di penjara akan dikurangkan sebanyak sepertiga hukuman beliau.

53. Representations = Perwakilan

A written or oral appeal to the Prosecution made by an accused person or through his defence counsel to highlight certain facts in his favour, with the aim of seeking the exercise of prosecutorial discretion to the benefit of the accused person. Sentencing is the process by which a judge, following the conviction of an accused person for an offence, determines and pronounces the punishment to be imposed on the accused person. The punishment that can be imposed depends on factors such as what is prescribed in the statutory provision creating the offence, the sentencing powers of the court and whether the accused person has committed previous offences. Prior to sentencing, the court can hear the accused person's mitigation as well as submissions by the Prosecution on the appropriate sentence.

Hakim akan menjatuhkan hukuman terhadap tertuduh yang disabit bersalah. Hukuman tertakluk kepada banyak hal seperti adakah tertuduh pernah melakukan kesalahan tersebut. Sebelum menjatuhkan hukuman, mahkamah boleh mendengar rayuan tertuduh dan juga dari pihak pendakwa raya.

56. Sentencing Benchmark = Had Menjatuhkan Hukuman

The “sentencing benchmark” for a type of offence or (e.g. cases of outrage of modesty involving contact with the victim’s private parts) is the sentence which is likely to be imposed by the court for that type of offence, based on the sentencing practice in previous similar cases. That being said, the sentencing benchmark is merely a guideline; a court will examine the individual facts of each case to determine the appropriate sentence.

Ini adalah hukuman berdasarkan kes-kes terdahulu. Ini hanyalah sandaran semata-mata. Mahkamah akan memeriksa setiap bukti dalam kes masing-masing.

57. Standard of Proof = Bukti Munasabah

This refers to the legal test for the sufficiency of evidence that a party seeking to prove particular facts during a trial has to satisfy before those facts are accepted by the court as true. The standard of proof required for the Prosecution is higher; the Prosecution has to prove facts beyond reasonable doubt. The standard of proof required for the accused person or the Defence is lower; the accused person or the Defence only has to prove facts on a balance of probabilities.

Sebelum bukti itu dianggap benar, ia harus melalui pelbagai periksa supaya ia boleh dianggap munasabah. Bukti Munasabah dari pihak pendakwa raya lebih tinggi kerana dia perlu menunjukkan bukti tanpa sebarang keraguan. Peguam bela hanya harus menunjukkan bukti itu tidak munasabah untuk memansuhkan bukti tersebut.

58. Statement of Facts = Keterangan Bernas

A legal document prepared by the Prosecution that describes how an offence was committed; it is a narration of the circumstances and facts making up the offence. After the accused person has pleaded guilty to the charge against him, the Prosecution will usually read out the statement of facts in court. The accused person has to admit to the statement of facts without qualification before the court can find him guilty and convict him.

Ini adalah kenyataan bertulis dari pendakwa raya yang menerangkan bagaimana kesalahan itu dilakukan dan kenyataan yang menunjukkan mengapa ia bernas. Setelah tertuduh mengaku bersalah pendakwa raya akan membaca Keterangan Bernas ini. Tertuduh harus mengaku yang keterangan itu adalah betul sebelum mahkamah boleh menyabit dia bersalah dan jatuhkan hukuman.

59. Subsidiary Legislation = Undang-Undang Subsidiari.

Subsidiary legislation is law made by Ministers or other statutory bodies and appointees, and not by Parliament. The power to make subsidiary legislation is found in Acts of Parliament. Subsidiary legislation made under an Act has to be consistent with the purposes of that Act. It usually comprises procedural rules for the implementation of matters provided for in the Act, but can also consist of provisions that create offences.

Ini adalah undang-undang yang dibuat Menteri atau badan kanun lain dan bukan oleh Parlimen. Kuasa ini terletak dalam Akta Parlimen. Undang-undang subsidiari dalam akta harus sejajar dengan akta berikut. Selalunya ia berlandaskan prosedur yang telah dikanunkan dalam akta itu.

Before an accused person is released on bail, he must find one or more sureties to provide the bail amount ordered by the court. The number of sureties required depends on the terms of the bail. The surety has certain legal obligations, such as to keep in contact with the released person, to ensure that he attends the next court date or appointment with the police, and to ensure that he does not leave Singapore without permission from the court or the police. If the surety is in breach of any of these duties, the court may forfeit the whole or any part of the bail amount.

Seseorang yang menjadi penjamin pada tertuduh. Sebelum tertuduh bebas dalam ikat jamin, dia perlu mencari penjamin bagi dirinya. Penjamin perlu mengikut undang-undang yang dikeutarakan seperti mesti mengetahui gerak-geri tertuduh, mesti menyuruh tertuduh hadir pada sesi mahkamah berikutnya dan menjaga agar tertuduh tidak keluar negeri. Kalau penjamin tidak menjaga apa yang telak dimenterai, wang jaminan dia akan diambil.

62. Trial = Perbicaraan

A court proceeding in which the Prosecution introduces evidence, through witnesses, to prove beyond reasonable doubt that an accused person is guilty of an offence. If the Prosecution fails to do so, the accused person will be acquitted. An accused person who has been charged with having committed an offence is entitled to claim trial and call witnesses as well as introduce evidence in his defence as the law presumes that he is innocent until proven guilty.

Perbicaraan adalah tempat di mana pendakwa raya mengemukakan bukti dan saksi supaya dapat membuktikan dengan tiada keraguan yang tertuduh itu bersalah. Jika tidak mampu, yang tertuduh akan dibebaskan. Tertuduh pula boleh memanggil saksi dan mengutarakan bukti semasa perbicaraan untuk menunjukkan yang dia sememangnya tidak bersalah.

63. Witness = Saksi

Any party called by either the Prosecution or the Defence in a trial who can give evidence relevant to the commission, or otherwise, of the offence for which an accused person has been charged. For instance, the Prosecution may call witnesses who saw how the offence took place or to whom the victim of an offence made a complaint about the offence; the Defence may call witnesses who can testify that an accused person was somewhere other than where the Prosecution alleges he was when the offence was committed (such witnesses are also known as alibi witnesses).

Sesiapa yang dipanggil pihak pendakwa raya atau peguam bela untuk memberi bukti keterangan adalah saksi. Misalnya, pendakwa raya boleh memanggil saksi yang melihat kejadian itu. Peguam bela pula boleh memanggil saksi untuk mengesahkan bahawa tertuduh berada di tempat lain dan bukan di tempat kejadian jenayah itu berlaku. (Saksi sedemikian digelar "saksi alibi")
